

Principles For Growing Together

TŪHOE - TE URU TAUMATUA and the DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Growing our relationship so that our collective might stands for the majesty of Te Urewera Land, People, Kinship.

These Principles embody our moral beliefs, coded packages that guide truthful practice, honest behaviour and selfless discipline. They do, as do all moral virtues emanate from nature herself.

Through this pact, we record our common ground now established on fair terms. These Principles mutually urge and shape our needful standards and behaviours, building a new kinship that is necessary.

RELATIONSHIP PRINCIPLES

Here we describe our standard for relationship.

THE BEHAVIOUR WE EXPECT OF EACH OTHER:

- » There is no respect for those without humility.
- » Seek to understand, before you are understood.
- » Difference is the one thing we have in common, it is meant to unite, not divide us.
- » Doing and learning is OK.

THE LEADERSHIP RESPONSIBILITY WE BOTH CARRY:

- » Keeping our common ground present.
- » Being responsible for mutual learning needs.
- » To practice humility in action, knowing when to grant, share or fill space.
- » Work patiently with difference.
- » Protect our purpose - always.

WE COMMIT TO GROWING TOGETHER AND AGREE OUR PRINCIPLES ON THIS DAY.
